The book cover features a central illustration of a woman's upper body. She has dark, wavy hair and is looking directly at the viewer. Her skin is covered in numerous red splatters, resembling blood. She is holding a Cuban flag across her chest. The background of the illustration shows a dense urban landscape, likely Havana, with many buildings. The title 'MISTER IVYDE' is written in large, bold, yellow letters with a red outline, and 'ALLAVANA' is written below it in a similar style. The author's name is at the top, and the publisher's name is at the bottom.
